

Dr. Simone Dorsch

- Simone is a physiotherapy clinician, researcher and educator. She has 25+ years experience in stroke, brain injury and aged care rehabilitation. Simone is a senior lecturer at the Australian Catholic University in North Sydney.
- Research and publications: Simone has published many peer reviewed journal articles. Her research focuses on the relationship between loss of strength and activity limitations and strategies to increase amounts of practice in rehabilitation.

A/Prof. Kwah Li Khim

- Kwah Li Khim is the Director of Programmes, Health and Social Sciences Cluster at SIT. She holds a part-time appointment with the Chief Allied Health Officer's Office at MOH, and is one of the leads of the Community Rehabilitation Transformation Workgroup.
- Her current work focus on bridging the gap between research evidence and clinical practice in rehabilitation, and improving physical activity level after stroke